

DIRK L. BRUTSAERT, MD, PhD, EFESC, EFACC; Professor-Emeritus, University of Antwerp, Antwerp, Belgium.

Professor of Physiology and Medicine with joint appointment in Department of Medicine, University of Antwerp, Belgium (1966-2002); Co-chairman, Department of Cardiology, University Hospital Antwerp (UZA) (1981-2002);

Honorary Consultant, Department of Cardiology, Middelheim Hospital, University of Antwerp, Antwerp (2002–2007).

Founding President of the Heart Failure Association (HFA) of the European Society of Cardiology (ESC) (2004-2006); President of the Royal Academy of Medicine of Belgium, 2004-2006.

Major research interest : Myocardial and ventricular function (contraction, relaxation and filling, non-uniformity) in health and disease, in particular in heart failure, including the role of cardiac endothelium in endothelial-cardiomyocyte cell communication.